

If you are a PhD candidate in data science at the Medical Faculty there is the possibility to participate in the events of the International Max Planck Research School for Intelligent Systems \(IMPRS-IS\) under certain conditions.

Basic requirement: Your supervisor must be a member of imprs-is!

How to find out if your supervisor is a member of imprs-is:

1. Go to: <https://imprs.is.mpg.de/faculty>
2. Type 'Tübingen' in the search field
3. If your supervisor is listed you have the possibility to apply for participation.

How to apply for participation:

Send an Email to Dr. Leila Masri (imprs@is.mpg.de) with your request and the name of your (associated) supervisor.

After that you will be registered in the mailing list of the imprs-is as an associated / guest student and will have access to their events (second priority after the imprs-is students).
